COURSE DESCRIPTION

This faculty-led study abroad tour will trace the historical footsteps of women of color across the transatlantic regions of Europe. Little is known of the impact of such women on cities like London or Paris; however, this study abroad and online course will place their histories front and center to shed light on new narratives and different locations in the African Diaspora. Course equivalent: AWSS 399.

COURSE LEARNING GOALS

During this summer session, students will learn to:

- 1) Locate and identify women of color in historical, cultural, and geographical contexts;
- 2) Compare diverse women, histories, and locations; and
- 3) Produce multimedia narratives and analyses.

This study abroad fulfills the General Education International Perspectives requirement, as well as requirements for the Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies (WGSS) major and minor.

REQUIRED TEXTS

Readings, videos, and instructions for assignments are available on BLACKBOARD.

REQUIREMENTS

Class Participation – To earn full participation credit, you will be expected to attend all group-based tours and events during our study abroad and to log-in frequently to our Blackboard online course during the weeks, pre- and post-study abroad, when we will focus on online learning.

There will be opportunities to venture on your own on the study abroad tour, but you must adhere to the different itineraries outlined in the course schedule, follow instructions outlined in the course's travel guide on Blackboard, and complete reading, writing, and media assignments.

Museum Watch Blog – In both London and Paris, you will be expected to complete a "Museum Challenge" on your days off. You have numerous options (including free museums) in both cities (some in Paris are free the first Sunday of the month). On Blackboard, complete three Blog posts that feature a photograph/image of an item from a museum that you visited, accompanied with a 200-word analysis about that item and why it resonated for you during your visit. You must complete all three Blog posts by June 12, 2020, 11:59 PM EST.

Photo Essay – In anticipation of the numerous picture-taking you will most likely pursue during our travels, you will be expected to create a photo essay of 15-20 photographs – each photo accompanied by a written caption (2-3 sentences or 2-4 lines of poetic verse). The photo essay should also include a 200-word introduction describing the overall theme of your essay. In other words, don't simply include photos at random; engage in a theme (visually, geographically, historically) to tell a story through these images so that your picture-taking is meaningful (less posing/selfies and more action shots). This assignment is due on Blackboard by June 15, 2020, 11:59 PM EST.

 C = 75-73 C- = 72-70 D+ = 69-67 D = 66-65 E = below 65 points

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Your attendance is required for group excursions; you will receive a 10-point grade deduction for each missed excursion. The same applies if you fail to log-in regularly on BLACKBOARD. You are expected to log-in at least 5 times per online week.

COURSE EXPECTATIONS

You are expected to be early and prompt when we have organized tours since we will always be on a tight schedule. Plan to show up at least 10 minutes before the departure time listed on the schedule. You are expected to exercise caution whenever you travel at night or by yourself (I strongly recommend you travel with at least one other person when touring on your own, especially in the evening and night) and to always be aware of your surroundings. You must have a valid passport to travel outside of the United States.
