(1) Includes the DIS Comprehensive Housing Fee and the Danish Residence Permit fee (US$300). DIS offers several housing options, including family stay, Kollegium or Folkehojskole stay, or Danish roommates. A $200 refundable housing damage deposit is required for all DIS-arranged housing. (2) Every SUNY student automatically receives a $4,000 scholarship per semester which is deducted from the education abroad differential as shown. (3) Your place in the program is not ensured until DIS receives this non-refundable deposit. (4) There is a two week break each semester and a four week interim period between semesters during which students in homestays are expected to participate in study tours or to travel independently. Please consult the DIS website for information about Study Tours and other optional programs. www.disabroad.org

The amounts listed under "Other Projected Expenses" are estimates and may increase or decrease due to exchange fluctuations and personal spending habits. All costs subject to change.
